Reader's Opinions

The Woodbyne family might be a very old and distinguished one, but in 1812 they are very poor indeed and younger son Laurence (Laurie) gets the short stick and must marry the daughter of a wealthy lower class merchant. Esmeralda might not be the love of his life, but she sure is passionate in bed - that is until she's in the family...

Laurence Woodbyne takes a wife of a wealthy merchant in England only to end up hating the woman he married. Her father sends him to America to the rough frontier beyond the shiny mountains into Canada. Rowan is a half breed woman raised by nuns who is on her way to find her Inidan mother when the priest sent to guard her suddenly dies...
