Peek Inside the Book

When you look at someone you knew when you were young, you always see the person you first met, Tana French, Faithful Place //

Reader's Opinions

Considering I am the most gullible reader of all time, it's really a shame that I guessed who the killer was in the first 25-30% of the book. I still enjoyed this one, but it's definitely my least favorite in the series so far. I'm not a fan of the way Tana French foreshadows in general, but it really, extra bugged me in this one. The...
