Peek Inside the Book

"I'm not worthy of that," I said. I might be human now, but I understand how powerful a heavenly creature Carter was. "I don't deserve that much regard." He reached out and tipped my chin up. "You do, Georgina. And if you don't believe me now, then strive..."

When I talked to him earlier, he said he had to work tonight, Peter explained, but that we should go ahead and draw for him. Draw? I asked uneasily. Oh Lord. Tell me its not Pictionary night too. Peter sighed wearily. Draw for secret Santas. Do you even read the e-mails I send? Secret Santas? Seems like we just did that, I said. Yeah, a year ago, said Peter. Just like we do every Christmas. Reader's Opinions

First up: this book was unnecessary. I think it was a case of Miss Mead getting contracted for six books, but being done with the story by five. So she basically took what could have been about 50 pages of plot resolution and turned...
