Reader's Opinions

I was bummed that I had already read two of the selections in this anthology. It was a nice revisit and the last one was okay.

Aftershock by Jill Shalvis 4 StarsWhen an earthquake happens, two strangers find themselves huddled beneath a desk and, faced with the uncertainty of surviving, succumb to some life-affirming passion. When fate brings them back together again, along with the product of their passion, Amber and Dax are forced to confront their issues...
