Reader's Opinions

I really enjoyed reading Eh? to Zed as I sat in a library in Canada during my vacation. Many things were quite new to me and some things made me chuckle.

This book is essentially a rhyming couplet word list in alphabetical order with art work to match. Each word is chosen for its representation of Canada. This book might be more appealing to tourists than Canadians. It has very little educational value other than for a brief glance. The difficult words make it a hard book to use as a...
