

THE BLONDE BOMB TECH

Commitment-phobic bomb technician, Sabrina Morgan, flies unexpectedly into the arms of firefighter, Jake Donovan, seconds before a bomb explodes. This was her first failure, and in Jake's sizzling embrace, Sabrina is grateful for his comfort in helping her hide her secret fear of explosions. Jake falls in love with the passionate but emotionally wounded Sabrina. He thinks she is perfect for him. Also, who better than a bomb technician will understand and support his dangerous career as a firefighter? Looking to settle down and start a big family...

Reader's Opinions

The book is far better than I expected when I started it. I was expecting a short story with minimum attention paid to the suspense part, what I got is a full length novel with not only a good love story, but with an OK suspense plot. Sabrina Morgan is a bomb tech who, until now, had the perfect record of disabling every bomb she came...

This was a pretty hot (no pun intended) romantic suspense between a hunky firefighter and a beautiful, spunky, female bomb technician. Although it's rated as erotic, it wasn't overly explicit or kinky in any way, and the H/H had a very loving relationship. In terms of eroticism, I would rate it a couple of notches above what's out there...
