Reader's Opinions

A romanced biography of Princess Victoria Melita, Romanov by birth and marriage, and an interesting view of the Romanov family (with short appearances of Queen Maria of Romania). An interesting and captivating book.

i really enjoyed this book. as with other reviews I did struggle a bit with all the various relationships/kinships of all the characters to each other, with the overriding theme being the Romanovs and how they were related. it is an unusual departure of the story of the Romanovs, this time through the eyes of Ducky, one of Queen Victorias...
