

UNDERWORLD UNLEASHED

In a classic tale of temptation and duplicity, Neron, a demon from Hell, assembles the villains of the universe and offers them their "heart's desire" in exchange for their souls. As each criminal individually accepts the damned bargain, the heroes of Earth are suddenly overpowered and easily defeated by their evil adversaries. But the augmented villains soon learn the horrible...

Reader's Opinions

As I continue my read of TPBs collecting DCU's event series I found myself liking the concept of Underworld Unleashed more than I remembered. While it still depends too much on the tie-in issues (all but one left out of this trade) the core concept of upgrading villains by having them make a deal...

I love Mark Waid's writing, and the art here is mostly lovely, but the package just doesn't quite work. Besides the long middle piece, not written by Waid, which completely disrupts the flow of the rest of the story, this doesn't read like a mega crossover. Instead, it's a very personal...
