Reader's Opinions

After the Ashes takes place after the American Civil War. This is not a typical love story. But Cheryl Howe takes us down south to where Lorelei Sullivan is worried about her waylaid baby brother Corey. He's a most wanted man for a train robbery. And when Chris Braddock comes into the picture, he's a marshal after him and wasn't the...

I'm a sucker for cowboys! This was an easy, enjoyable read with lots of shoot 'em up action. There were several twists in the story which kept it interesting. I didn't find it predictable and although there were some sex scenes the story far outweighed them.
