Reader's Opinions

Just arrived from UK through BM.Since I'm not a big fan of fantasy books nowadays, I missed some more historical background in this book.

Overall I enjoyed the book. I like Russian fairy-tales, and there were some interesting variations on the usual themes. For example, Morwood's Prince Ivan isn't the youngest of three brothers, but instead has three older sisters, all of whom marry sorcerers who later help Ivan in his troubles. For Ivan has troubles, and though they're...
