

CATASTROPHICALLY CONSEQUENTIAL

This kindred spirit / doppelgänger / protégé of "Hideous Exuberance" incorporates non-linear plots; comical rants and disturbing inner monologues; stream of consciousness dream sequences; surrealistic scenarios and time-traveling characters.

Revel in the chaotic confusion of sociopathic celebrities, suburban swingers, suicidal trust fund girls, decadent jet setters, D-list standup comics, medieval princesses, sinister passive-aggressive jokers, "Evilangelists", and a host of other lost souls and disreputable, vindictive losers, as they search in vain for metaphysical clarity. Reader's Opinions

Steve Bird is back! Well, he hasn't actually been away. That's just what you say when someone has a new thing coming out. I'm sorry. I don't mean to imply that Steve Bird has a "thing", or that it's "coming out". I mean to say...

This is a difficult book to read-the question is if you can have the patience and fascination to keep going. Still ploughing through it myself but not "getting" it. Not to detract from the fact that this is a very twisted and immersive work. Much phonic word play-the author pushes use of language, possibly too far sometimes; the feeling...
