

THE SENSE OF BEAUTY

It is remarkably appropriate that this work on aesthetics should have been written by George Santayana, who is probably the most brilliant philosophic writer and the philosopher with the strongest sense of beauty since Plato. It is not a...

Peek Inside the Book

A habitual indulgence in the inarticulate is a sure sign of the philosopher who has not learned to think, the poet who has not learned to write, the painter who has not learned to paint, and the impression...

To feel beauty is a better thing than to understand how we come to feel it. To have imagination and taste, to love the best, to be carried by the contemplation of...

Reader's Opinions

Beautifully written. Makes some really interesting points on aesthetic theory. Directed poetry. Guy's amazing.
