

THE PRAIRIE BRIDESMAID

Anna Lasko is a frustrated schoolteacher in her thirties. While her almost-but-not-quite ex-boyfriend Adam is on a work assignment in Europe, Anna finds herself tricked into a ditch-the-loser intervention by her supportive yet meddling girlfriends. More frustrated than ever, Anna starts to smoke, asks Buddy, the backyard squirrel, for advice, and finally seeks out the help of a caring but fashion-challenged therapist. Adding to the emotional overload, Anna's beautiful but rash sister decides to move to the Middle East. Luckily,...

Reader's Opinions

I could not stand the characters in this book therefore, I couldn't stand the book.

A friend gave this title to me on the way back from my recent high school reunion. It is Canadian/Ukrainian Chick Lit. Anna, the main character is in recovery from an abusive relationship while being once again included as a bridesmaid in a friend's wedding. I enjoyed this novel for its local setting in the Osborne Village area where...
