

BREKKUKOTSANNÁLL

Brekkukotsannáll kom út árið 1957 og var fyrsta skáldsaga Halldórs Laxness eftir að hann hlaut Nóbelsverðlaunin í bókmenntum árið 1955. Þetta er sagan af Álfgrími sem elst upp hjá afa sínum og ömmu í Brekkukoti við klassísk lífsgildi; gjafmildi, nægjusemi, og hógværð. En utan við krosshliðið í Brekkukoti er annar heimur með öðrum siðum og lögmálum. Álfgrími verður þó hugstæðastur frægðarmaðurinn og stórsöngvarinn Garðar Hólm...

Peek Inside the Book

When the boat had gone a few oar-strokes away from land they were still standing on the beach, gazing after the boy whom an unknown woman had left naked in their arms. They were holding hands, and other people gave way before them, and I could see no one except them. Or were they perhaps so extraordinary that other...

Reader's Opinions

I gave a copy of 'Under the Glacier' by Laxness as a Christmas gift. But I would not give 'The Fish Can Sing' as a gift. For 'Fish' it takes awhile to see the merit or brilliance in it. I'm aware things went over my head to,...

This is the same book as, in the English version, is called The Fish Can Sing This is very possibly the best book ever written. Forgive my fretting about translations. I didn't want people to miss a thing. Then I
