Reader's Opinions

This is a book my mom (a librarian) brought home for me and I must have read it 10 times. A few years ago I found a copy of the long since out of print book on ebay and bought it. In re-reading it, I really did like it all over again. It is set during the...

A wonderful historical novel about a saint whom I'd never heard of before in a Spain where Moors, Jews, and Christians co-existed. I love this time period and place, and the author brings it vividly to life. I felt bad for Ben Haddaj, who was such...
