

DANCING IN MY NIGHTGOWN: THE RHYTHMS OF WIDOWHOOD

Married when she was barely 19, Betty Auchard went straight from her parents' home to her husband's bed. She raised four children, returned to college, taught art in the public school system, and became a grandmother, a published artist, a retiree, and then a widow. When she loses her husband of almost 49 years to cancer, widowhood forces Betty to find out what...

Reader's Opinions

Heartening journey of a remarkable woman navigating loss and reinventing of her life. An inspiration to all who find themselves having to make the transition.

The author writes of the craziness, and sadness, that beset her when her husband of 49 years died. Very inspirational.
