Reader's Opinions

Sophie Littlefield has a knack for writing wonderful and interesting characters, and Joe Bashir is no exception. Joe's experiences as a Pakistani-American, detective and just plain ordinary guy struggling in his familial and romantic relationships are what really make this story so engaging, though there's no question that Littlefield...

Pakistani-American Detective Joe Bashir arrives at a crime scene to find one of the wealthy dinner guests dead. Two days later the hostess is dead too. Why I started this book: I liked Littlefield's A Bad Day for Sorry series and was...
