Reader's Opinions

I bought this because I like the Jonah Hex character, but this collection was a tie-in work bringing Hex to a western age Gotham City. There were various setups to connect this story with the future Batman tales and I didn't think they worked all that well. The writing...

I started reading this series solely because I have a soft spot in my heart for classic Sergio Leone spaghetti westerns, and thought it'd be interesting to see a comic book twist on it. It also didn't hurt that Palmiotti & Gray's year-spanning run on this series has reached relative acclaim. It gets the job done, I guess. It had less...
