Peek Inside the Book

Your prim faith in the True Sects canon serves naught. The temple preaches a loveless morality that cares not one jot for the plight of our livelihood. The priests are fat parasites, theosophizing on their rumps while folk like us break our backs, milked dry by their tithes and their rote obligations. Where does their doctrine show the least concern for our chance to enjoy the fruits...

I say human beings have purposeful brains beyond acting like flocks of scared pigeons. Janny Wurts, Initiate's Trial //

Reader's Opinions

This one was a weird read but amazing as usual. I was angry with Janny Wurts at first because of the timeline and because of the resulting loss of especially one character I loved very much, but Janny Wurts managed to make me embrace all those new characters. And while I've become extremely frustrated with "A Song of Ice and Fire", "The...
