Peek Inside the Book

This is like the joke where the guy climbs the mountain and asks the guru, 'What is the secret of life?,' and the guru says, 'All is One,' and the guys says, 'Are you kidding?,' and the guru says, 'You mean it isn't?' Rudy Rucker, The Ware Tetralogy //

I was strange to keep waking up in the morning feeling good. Rudy Rucker, The Ware Tetralogy //

Reader's Opinions

It's hard not to echo other people's views on the tetralogy. Starts off very well IMO, it's engaging and plausible, the characters are actually pretty good and I found myself enjoying this all the way through until about the last book. At that point, Rucker's imagination was extended to a full limit I think. He had taken the concept...

I will admit the last book, 'Realware' is a little tiny bit of tinfoil in an otherwise glorious smorgasbord of science fiction goodness, but the overall abundance of weird, fun,...
