Reader's Opinions

This volume of Nightwing's adventures open with a Year Zero story that introduces Dick Grayson to the Maroni crime syndicate. Dick Grayson runs into Barbara Gordon and Tony Zucco's daughter (both old girlfriends) in Gotham and Chicago. Then there is Mad Hatter's visit and other tragedies. The final straw is a call from Batman for an...

While this volume was still somewhat enjoyable, it was mostly weak. However, I love everything Dick Grayson, so of course I still enjoyed it. The first issue I think is it being set in Chicago. I still don't understand the point of that. Isn't Bludhaven corrupt enough? Why go to another corrupt city? The same exact story could have been...
