In the newest Elemental Masters novel, Mari Prothero learns that her father's preternatural fishing and sailing abilities aren't just skill; long ago her family made a pact with the Selchs, a type of Selkie, and in order to keep the pact, Mari must marry a Selch, have children, and give her...

I enjoy the Elemental Masters series in general, but let's be honest: Mari Prothero did not need any help from Lord A. While I will admit that I would have questioned why nobody in London was concerned about an unknown Water Master on the Welsh coast, I probably wouldn't have missed Nan and Sarah at all in this book if their section...
