

THE PAST

Over five novels and two collections of stories Tessa Hadley has earned a reputation as a fiction writer of remarkable gifts, and been compared with Elizabeth Bowen and Alice Munro. In her new novel three sisters and a brother meet up in their grandparents' old house for three long, hot summer weeks. The...

Reader's Opinions

I love reading reviews almost as much as I love reading fiction, and from doing so have realised that the majority of people often rate books based on a box-ticking system. A highly rated book would have an engaging plot and memorable, preferably likeable, characters that develop throughout the novel. For me though, sometimes a book...
