

GHOST'S DILEMMA

"Moon shine on me, Ghost. When you look at me like this, how can I even think of anything but making love to you?" Ghost is content to spend all his free time in bed with Gerry. But scandal and hate surrounding Ghost's appointment as the first male witch and a deadly epidemic force Ghost to make choices that might cost him Gerry's love. Spurred on by a message from his mentor, Ghost embarks alone on a journey through mystical underground tunnels and lost civilizations...

Peek Inside the Book

If you leave with me, they'll say we both ran away," Ghost said, his voice muffled in Gerry's cloak. "If you're here, they might believe I'll come back. Please, Gerry. I need to go alone. We talked about this. You said you would let me go if I needed to. I need you to be strong enough to let me leave. Morwen Navarre, Ghost's Dilemma //

Next time, you're coming with me," Ghost mumbled into Gerry's neck, listening to the comfortable thrum of Gerry's pulse. "Next time?" Gerry sounded amused, and Ghost lifted his head to peer at Gerry. "Only if I get to pick where we go. The Northlands? Way too cold...

Reader's Opinions

This is a series and should be read in order, no cliffhanger but unfinished story. Enjoyed the characters, story and everything else EXCEPT the covers of this and the first book have nothing to do with the main characters who is fair skinned with...
