

THE NAKED HUSBAND

By all accounts Mark d'Arbanville has the 'perfect life': a successful writer, he is happily married with a teenage son. But when he falls in love with another woman, Mark's life unravels, exposing regret, estrangement and heartache. Yet as his marriage falls apart Mark still can't let go. Nor can his lover, Anna, who won't...

Peek Inside the Book

They say women can fake an orgasm, but men can fake a whole relationship. Colin Falconer, The Naked Husband //

Reader's Opinions

Less than exceptional writing but a study of middle age and lost dreams that reminded me of so many.

*This book was provided to me free of charge courtesy of GoodReads First Reads Giveaways*When I finally had the time to sit down and read I got through this in one day. The page length is very short, nearly every page is a new chapter, but there is a lot of story packed in.I had some difficulty adjusting to the author's writing style...
