

THE ILLUSTRATED HISTORY OF CANADA: A CANADIAN CLASSIC, NOW COMPLETELY REVISED

"This book presents the sweep of Canadian history, and a grand sweep it is." - "Montreal Gazette" (on an earlier edition) First published in 1987, The Illustrated History of Canada was the first comprehensive, authoritative one-volume chronicle of Canada from its earliest times. Today, The Illustrated History of Canada is fully updated and includes contemporary material on the rise of small government, the recognition of Native land claims, and Canada's role in the post-Cold War.

Reader's Opinions

After months of reading this tome of Canadian history, I feel enlightened. I learned things I never thought of, felt like I was too a Canadian. I loved having this book to read, and will plan on using it in any classes I end up teaching some day.
