Peek Inside the Book

It was an old Herrani flag, stitched with the royal crest. Arin said, "But the royal line is gone." "They're looking for something to call you, Kestrel said, nudging Javelin forward. "Not this. It's not right." "Don't worry. They'll find the right words to describe you." "And you." "Oh, that's easy." "It is?" It seemed impossible to name every thing she was to him. Kestrel's expression was serious, luminous. He loved to see her like this. "They'll say that I'm yours," she told him, "just as...

Reader's Opinions

The Winners Trilogy is without a doubt one of my favourite series ever, from its captivating writing, the incredible characters and those crafty plot twists, Rutkoski has proven with each new release that she can still leave us in a complete state of shock. The same can definitely be said for The Winners Kiss; my dear friends, you may...

Fellow readers and fangirls, I have come to preach to you the awesomeness that is this book, this series, this writer. And I've come armed. With words. And feels. And quotes. The Winners Curse was a gentle introduction to the characters, the world and the romance. I loved it. The Winners Crime was a crescendo of court intrigue, sticky...
