Reader's Opinions

This is hands down my favourite of Shakespeare's comedy plays! It was so incredibly well written and the characters, the world and the plot were all so beautifully crafted that I just couldn't help but fall in love with this play!

Hell is empty and all the devils are here. Believed to have been written in 1611, this may have been one of his last plays. The mature bard, he would have been 47 at this time and with only 5 more years left in this world, created in my humble opinion one of his finest plays....and then, in dreaming, / The clouds...
