SAVING DREW

Recovering from a shoulder injury that could end his career as starting pitcher of the New York Empires, Drew MacIntire comes to Silver Bay for solitude and privacy from the media frenzy his surgery has created. After he dances with the beautiful baker, Baylee, at his sister's wedding, his heart not only wants baseball back, but a future with her as well. Baylee Nelson is settled into her simple, small town life in Silver Bay with her young son, Casey. When Drew saunters into her bakery...

Reader's Opinions

Baylee has come to Silver bay to start over and now has an amazing job and he wonderful son and they have so much head of them. When Drew catches her eye at her friends wedding she wonders if she can have something she never hoped for, but with him only in...

More than Baylee's baking and Drew's baseball career what pulled me into the story was Drew's budding relationship with Baylee's special needs son Casey, Drew just gets him,understands him more than his own dad. The small town life and the realness of the main characters made this a genuinely enjoyable read,a feel good story that captured...
