Reader's Opinions

Lil Red Rose is on her way to her grandmother's home to get away from Alf. Rose does not have a choice in the matter when it comes to marriage. She has been promised to the town...

This book was ok. I feel the characters could have been better developed and I disliked the ending. There are just pieces that are missing in this book that should have made it. One example is you run from your grandmothers house but she doesn't look...
